SENIOR PROPHECY

Radio Headlines brought to you every week-day morning by Dick Wilkins

Buy your wedding bouquets, corsages, shrubs and other flowers from the Podunk Co. green house owned and operated by Miss Glenys Crooks. Miss Crooks assures you when better flowers are raised, the Podunk Co. will raise them. Miss Crooks' specialty are white roses.

Dr. and Mrs. Roger E. Ish recently entertained with a dinner party at their home on Park Avenue, New York City, honoring Miss Betty Rynearson who recently announced her engagement and approaching marriage to Mr. Marvin Gushwa, who is manager of Zenith Radio Company in New York City. The marriage will take place in late fall. Mrs. Ish was formerly Betty Price.

Mr. Earl M. Kerns has returned home after spending the past season in Chicago, where he is manager of the Chicago Cubs.

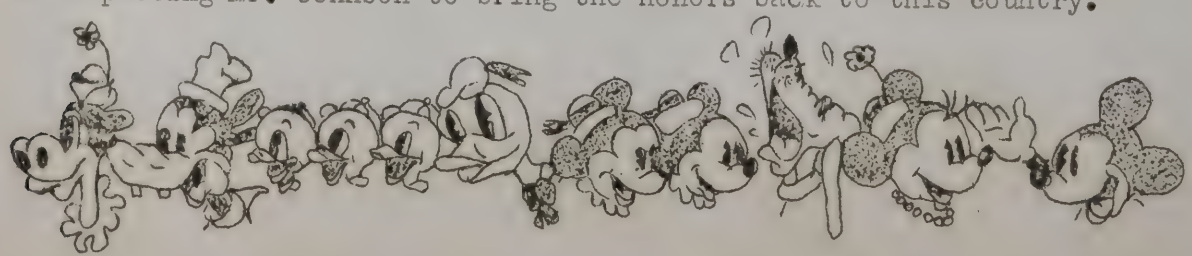
Miss Iris Pontius, this countries greatest violinist is home from Mexico for a short stay. Miss Pontius can be heard every week over Radio Station X Y Z in Mexico City, on Monday evening from 8 until 9 CST.

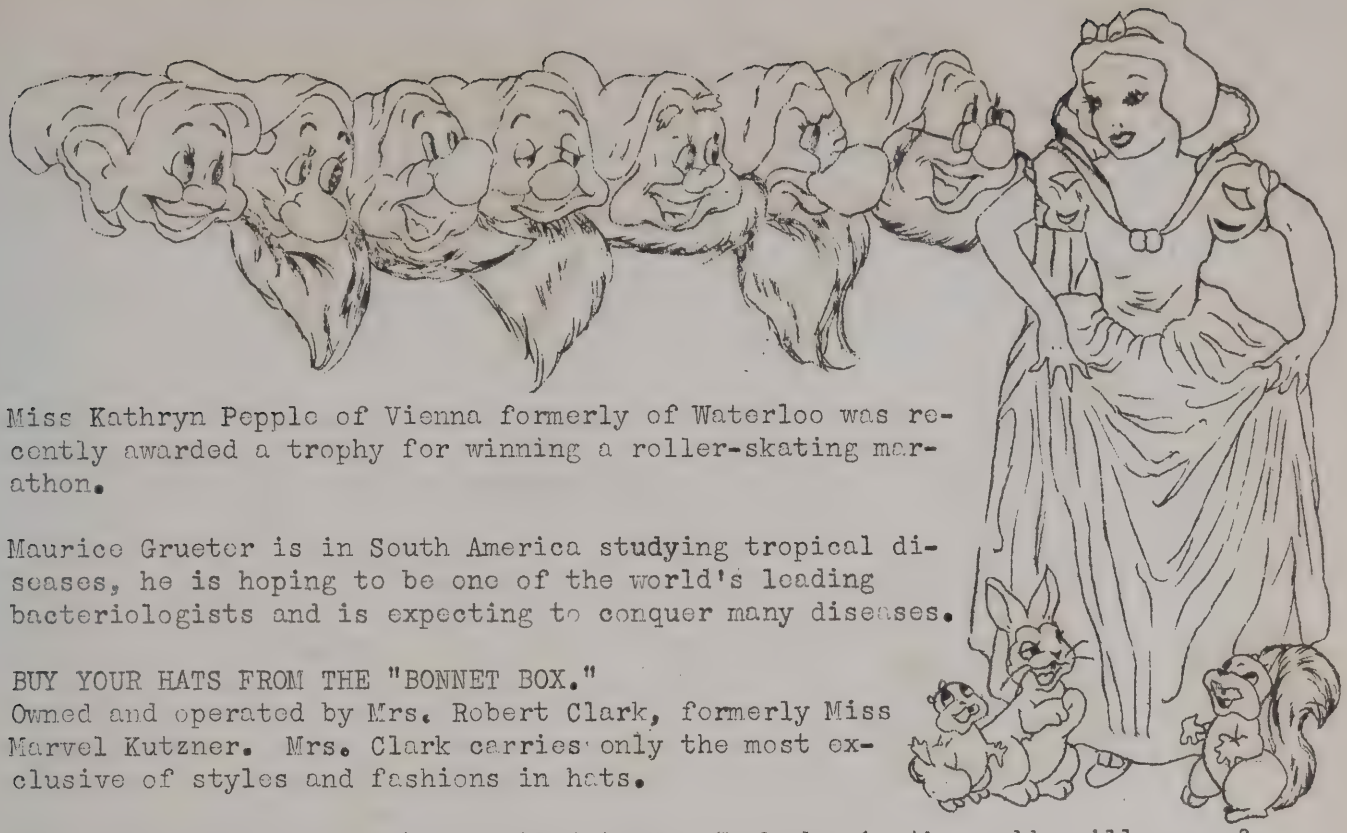
Mr. Hugh Deetz was slightly shaken up when his auto was struck by a Twentieth Century Limited near Summit. It was believed he fell asleep while navigating the vehicle. Mr. Deetz is able to be around although he feels very irritable toward the loss of his auto, which was one of the oldest in that part of the country.

Word was received here to-day that finally the long drawn Edington-Kalb romance ended at the altar. The couple were married in Yuma, Arizona. Mr. Edington has been mayor in Yuma for the past four years.

Judge Kenneth Bowman has been confined to his home the past week due to a cold caught while on a fishing trip. It was reported that the boat was tipped over. Mr. Bowman has been judge of the county for the last four years.

Paul Johnson has left for Europe, where he is planning to participate in a Worlds Wrestling match, accompaning him on the trip is his manager, Glen Shultz. We are expecting Mr. Johnson to bring the honors back to this country.





Miss Kathryn Pepple of Vienna formerly of Waterloo was recently awarded a trophy for winning a roller-skating marathon.

Maurice Grueter is in South America studying tropical diseases, he is hoping to be one of the world's leading bacteriologists and is expecting to conquer many diseases.

BUY YOUR HATS FROM THE "BONNET BOX."
Owned and operated by Mrs. Robert Clark, formerly Miss Marvel Kutzner. Mrs. Clark carries only the most exclusive of styles and fashions in hats.

Miss Marietta Fretz has been called to New York due to the sudden illness of her pet dog, Fifi who has been there since the first of the year due to a slight cold returned from an ocean voyage. We hope she finds the dog much improved.

Flash! Flash! Flash!
Mr. William L. Hollinger plans to leave Tuesday morning from the top of the Test Station (just north of the city) for an uncertain landing, hoping to land on the planet, Mars. The wee rocketship which Mr. Hollinger intends to use, was constructed by himself in the basement of his home. HAPPY LANDING, BILL!

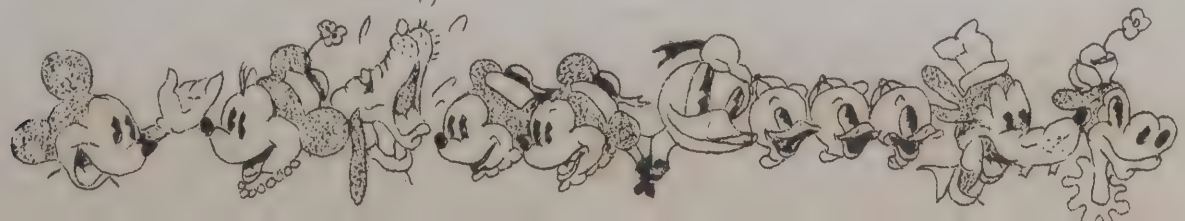
Mr. William Love, ex-swimming champion of the world of 1940, has recently acquired the job as life guard of Miami Beach, Florida. Attend to your work, Bill.

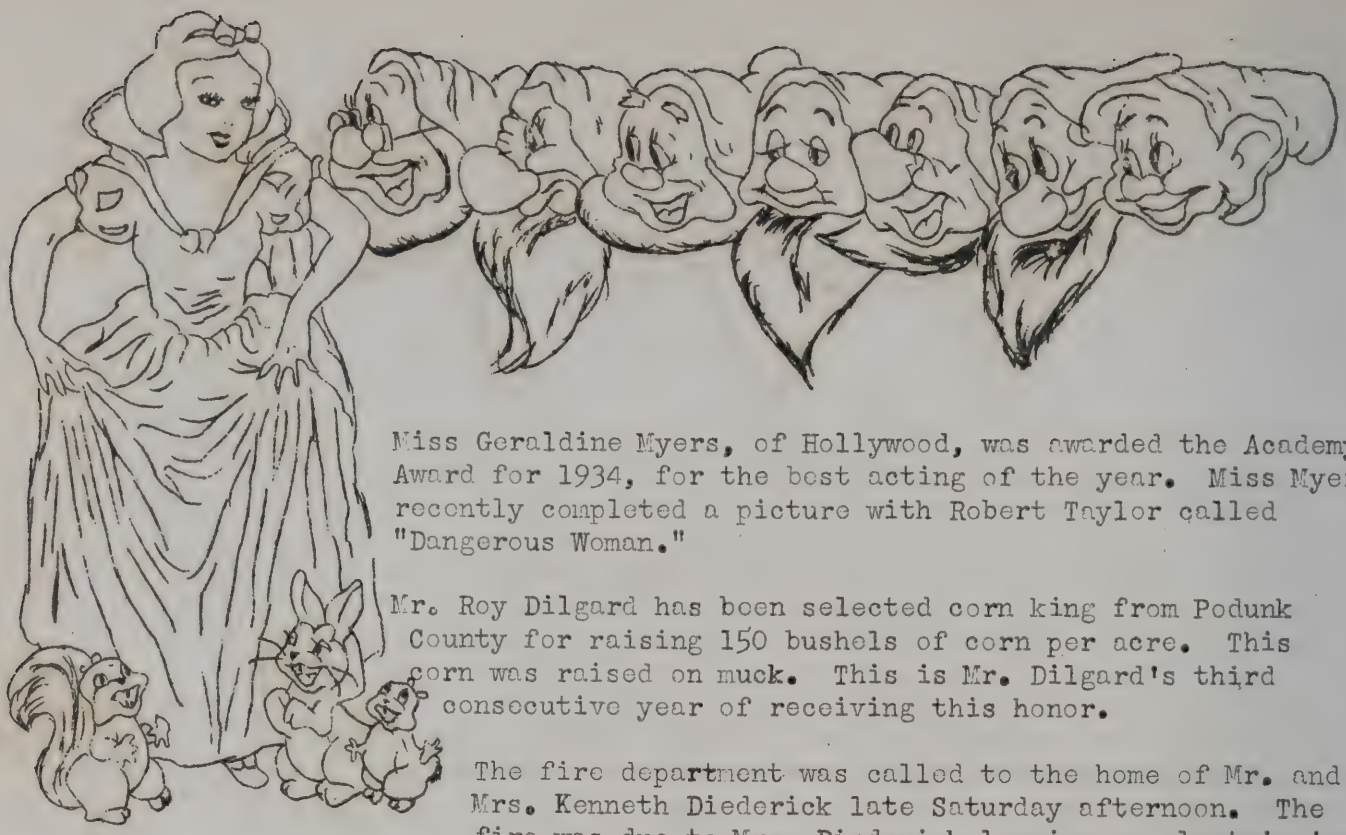
Miss Maxiene Hollinger, who is nurse in St. Luke's Hospital Chicago, has been promoted to Superintendent of nurses. Congratulations, Maxiene.

Miss Doris Gafken has been selected as a model air-hostess by the T. W. A. Lines. She has been appointed head of the Air Training School in Chicago for air hostesses. Good luck, Doris.

Rev. Frank "Bud" Frick of the Nazarene Church of Sedan, has been called upon to Christen the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith of the same city. Mr. Smith runs a dairy in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dunn and their small son, Herman, have returned to their home in Sedan, Indiana after spending a few days in Corunna with relatives. Mrs. Dunn formerly being Donas Gafken of Waterloo.





Miss Geraldine Myers, of Hollywood, was awarded the Academy Award for 1934, for the best acting of the year. Miss Myers recently completed a picture with Robert Taylor called "Dangerous Woman."

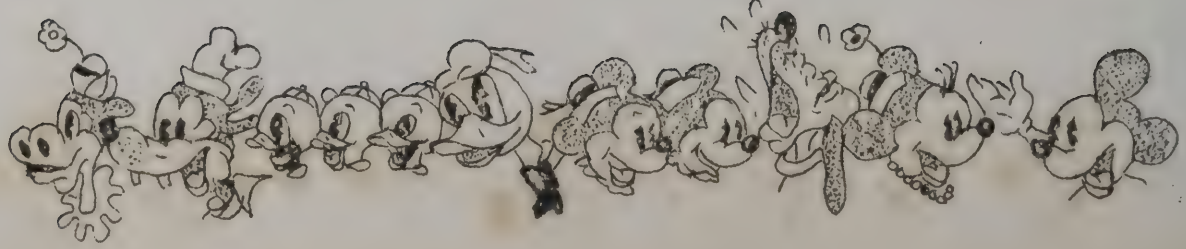
Mr. Roy Dilgard has been selected corn king from Podunk County for raising 150 bushels of corn per acre. This corn was raised on muck. This is Mr. Dilgard's third consecutive year of receiving this honor.

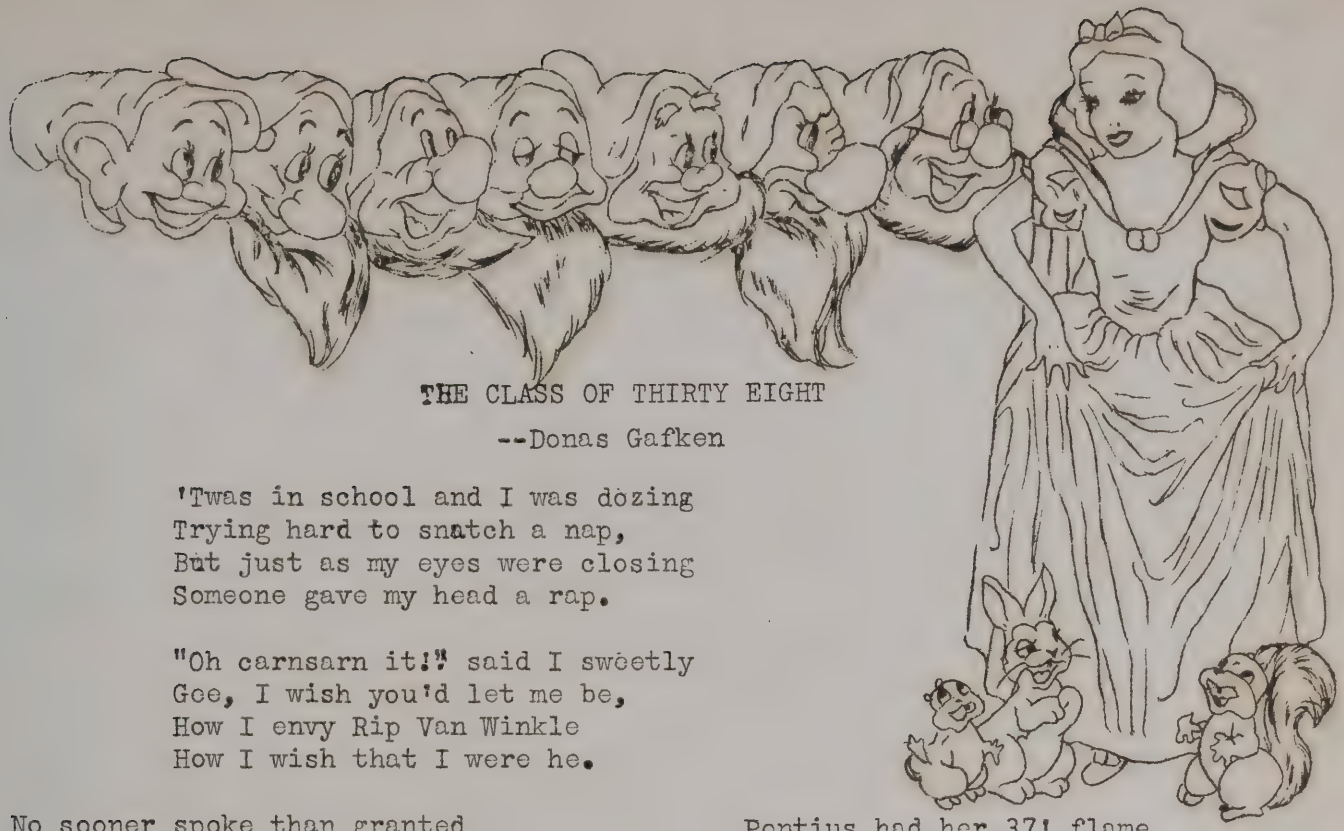
The fire department was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Diederick late Saturday afternoon. The fire was due to Mrs. Diederick leaving an electric iron connected, while she went for a shopping tour to a nearby city. Only slight damage was done. Mr. Diederick who is fire-chief, was quite surprised when the fire was reported by the town marshal, James Silberg. Mrs. Diederick was formerly Miss Ruth Imhof.

LADIES WITH FRECKLES--do you worry, fret, and stew, over your freckles? Why don't you try "Blondios Freckly Cream," created by Miss Corinne Schomberg. This entirely new and different freckle cream was discovered in the laboratories of the Schmidt-Schomberg Corporation, makers of Fine Cosmetics. Miss Schmidt and Miss Schomberg recently returned from Paris, where they spent the past year in the study of cosmetics.

Station XYZ signing off until the same time next year. GOOD-BY AND GOOD LUCK TO ALL.

--Richard Wilkins '38





THE CLASS OF THIRTY EIGHT

--Donas Gafken

'Twas in school and I was dozing
Trying hard to snatch a nap,
But just as my eyes were closing
Someone gave my head a rap.

"Oh carnsarn it!" said I sweetly
Gee, I wish you'd let me be,
How I envy Rip Van Winkle
How I wish that I were he.

No sooner spoke than granted
And I slept for twenty years.
When I woke, 'Twas among ruins;
Great and many were my fears.

As I wandered to the village:
I saw strangers on the sly,
Point out accusing fingers
And murmur as I passed by.

At one I stopped, almost frantic
And this question did hurridly state
Tell me sir where is the romatic
Class of nineteen thirty eight.

We had lovers, Ish and Price
Each one thought the other nice.
There is Wava and Crooks too
Who knew their love when it was new.

Kalb and Eddy we did see
Each like honey to a bee.
Came then Kutzner into view
Her's a Junior as true as true.

Pontius had her 37' flame
No use for me to tell his name.
There was Love; Bowman too,
What of Kerns, What did he do?

Hollinger, Popple was his choice
And Warren Smith without a voice.
Betty Rae her loved one seeked
Of Ruthie I did Diederick speak.

Sebert had his love, a minute view,
Although his heart did relate
Just the same for Paul and Hugh
All the romatic class of thirty eight.

The others had their lovers too
Even then as me and you.
So did Dilgard, Gushwa, Grueter
Members of our Alma Mater.

There were others in the class
About whom I'd love to gas
There was Gafken, Wilkens, Silberg and Shultz
Hollinger, Fretz, Myers and Schomberg.

As my pages are numbered few
Remember what I've told to you
The love bug class of thirty eight
May bit you too before its late.

Freshmen Class History

When we entered our High School duties we were forty in number but some have come and others have gone, so at present our number consists of twenty-one boys and twenty girls. The Freshmen are all looking forward to being graduated from the Waterloo High School in three years and then taking up some other trend of life.

ROSE OF THE DANUBE

October 15, 1937 H.S. Auditorium 8:00P.M.

Story

The kingdom of Eurolania lies somewhere in Europe on the Danube river. On the morning of the story the kingdome is feeling very blue, for the simple reason that the royal treasury is exhausted and he army is threatening to sit down at any moment. Count von Popova is plotting to start a revolution, assisted by the rascally Tootletop and Doodledorf.

The annual rose festival is about to take place and one of the visitors is percival McPipp, the great movie director from Hollowood. He offers the king one million dollars for the use of the Kingdon, people and palace to make a super super special picture. The mob scene given Popova his chance for revolution, but the plot is foiled and the rose festival end happily.

Waterloo vs. Butler	37	43
Waterloo vs. Garrett	35	33

The Waterloo Wildcats had a very successful season this year, winning twenty games and loosing but three. The Wildcats did very well in our sectional tournament held at Garrett.

The Wildcats will lose five members from the squad but it is believed by the fans they will have just as good a team next year. Waterloo will have a new gym next year which will be of great advantage to the teams in the following years.

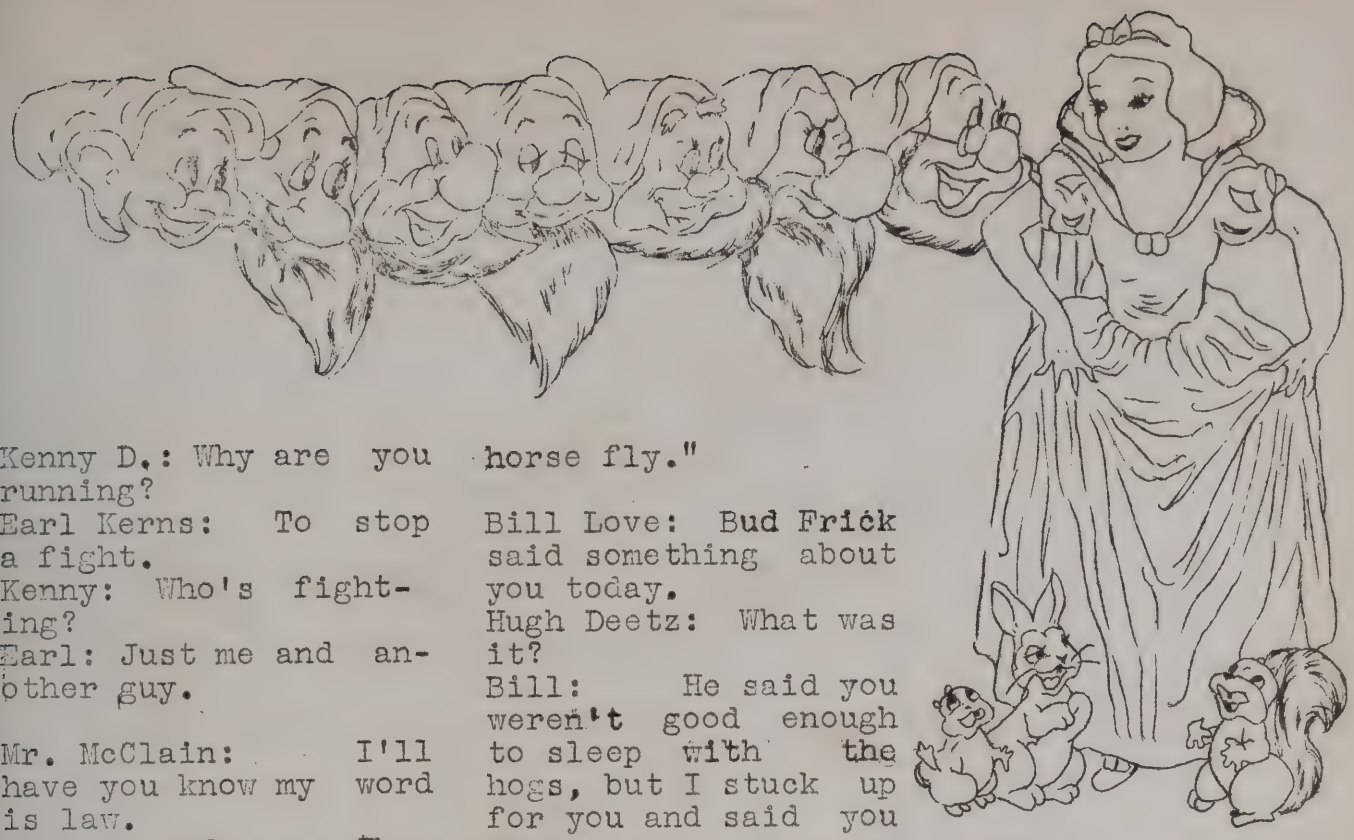
CORNER OF SIXTH AND MAIN STREETS



Kenny D.: Why are you running?
Earl Kerns: To stop a fight.
Kenny: Who's fighting?
Earl: Just me and another guy.

Mr. McClain: I'll have you know my word is law.
Roy Dilgard: Then here's where I make a few amendments.

Geraldine Kalb: So Wayne Edington praised my singing.
Iris Pontius: He said it was heavenly.
Geraldine: Did He really say that?
Iris: Not exactly, but he probably meant that. He said it was unearthly.

Bill Hollinger: "What is that thing flying around my head."
Betty Price: "That's a horse fly."
Bill Hollinger: "I thought that horse flys only flew around horses."
Betty Price: "Well you can't fool a horse fly."

Bill Love: Bud Frick said something about you today.
Hugh Deetz: What was it?
Bill: He said you weren't good enough to sleep with the hogs, but I stuck up for you and said you were.

Ruth Imhof: You remind me of the sea.
Kenny D.: Why? because I'm wild, restless and romantic?
Ruth: No, because you make me sick.

Roger Ish: I can't see any chicken in this soup.
Home Ec. Girl: Do you ever see horses in horseradish?

Miss Bachtel: I read in the paper that science has discovered that singing warms the blood.
Mr. Overmeyer: He must be right. I've heard singing that has made my blood boil.

Dad: Well son how are your marks?
Wayne F.: They're under water.
Dad: What do you mean under water.
Wayne: Below "C" level.

Ding Gushwa: The car is at the door Dad.
Dad: Yes I hear it knocking.

James Silberg: I looked in your desk the other day and I see that your writing quite a long paper; What are you going to name it?
Skinny Dunn: What to do about snoopers.

Marge: Where is the car?
Andy: Dear Me! did I take the car out?
Marge: You certainly did. You drove it down town.
Andy: How odd! I remember now that after I got out I turned around to thank the gentleman who gave me the lift and wondered where he had gone.

Mr. Smith: "How much time did you spend on your lesson?"
Wayne E: "Two periods.
Mr. Smith: "Then if you spent two periods on it why haven't you got it?"
Wayne: "Because I spent the two periods hunting for my book."

Warren Smith to Miss Snyder sitting on the porch as he passed.
Warren Smith: "Look at that big horse fly!"
Little Audrey just laughed and laughed because she knew a horse couldn't fly.

Mr. Barr: "What does absorption mean?"
Kate Popple: "To soak something up, like a sponge soaks up water."
Mr. Barr: "Then why don't you soak up what I say in class and let your head be like a sponge?"

Maurice Grueter: How did you say you want your eggs.
M. Fretz: I'd like them done one on one side and one on the other.

Dorothea Karns: (While on a drive with Bob Sebert) Can you drive with one arm?
Bob: You bet I can.
Dorothea: Okay. Here is an apple.

Maxine H: Is this your baseball in our garden?
Paul Johnson: (Looking worried) are there any windows broken?
Maxine: No.
Paul: Then it's mine.

Bud Frick: "Why don't you act you age?"
Dick Wilkins: "I would if I knew what my age was."

Marvel Kutzner: Dull party isn't it.
Geraldine Myers: Yes
Marvel: Let's go home.
Geraldine: I can't I'm the host.

K. Bowman: What is a farm?
G. Shultz: A piece of land entirely covered by a mortage.

Dunn: Could I have a bite to eat Ma'am?
Donas Gafken: (Pointing to a wood pile) sure, have a chop.
